CLINTON · ESSEX · FRANKLIN
LIBRARY SYSTEM

We are all on the same page.

Revised February 8, 2017

Who We Are

The Clinton-Essex-Franklin Library System not only functions as a support to the 33 local libraries and reading centers in the region, but also provides a direct connection to enhanced library services for the organizations, groups, and individuals of Northeastern New York. We provide leadership and advocacy for libraries, as well as coordinate interlibrary loan and information distribution within our member libraries and to the global library network. By providing resources to the population free of charge on both a regional and state level, we ensure that people have access to information regardless of their social or economic standing. Our focus on resource sharing, cooperative delivery of goods and services, and collaborative project management, coupled with new information technology, means we can deliver thousands of dollars' worth of resources and materials at a fraction of the cost, bringing the best possible library services at the best possible value to each and every person.

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

This booklet is intended to let people returning to Clinton, Essex, and Franklin counties from prison or jail know where to find help. We have tried to provide the latest information on all the services listed, however, addresses, telephone numbers, and websites may change.

There are 33 public libraries and reading centers in the three counties which contain books and other educational materials to borrow for free, libraries offer free Internet access and job information materials. Some libraries have word processing software for in-house use.

Call Clinton-Essex-Franklin Library System at (518) 563-5190 for the name of the public library nearest you or visit our website <http://www.cefls.org>.
