There will be a Librarians' Meeting on Monday, October 2, at 10:30 at the Headquarters. Miss Florence Boochever and Mr. W. T. Henderson of the Book Information Section of the Library Extension Division will present a program dealing with book selection and related topics.

Miss Boochever, head of the Book Information Section, is editor of the Bookmark. Before joining the staff of the New York State Library, she was in charge of public relations and reference at the Albany Public Library. She is a graduate of Cornell University and the Columbia School of Library Service. She has also been associated with the Macmillan Publishing Company.

Mr. Henderson, Assistant Librarian in the Book Information Section, joined the State Library at Watertown, where he held the position of Readers' Advisor before transferring to Albany. Prior to that time, he was in the Circulation and Reference Sections of the Jamestown Public Library. He is a graduate of Livingston College and the State College of Education at Geneseo.

Miss Boochever and Mr. Henderson will bring a book exhibit. We hope that all librarians and trustees will be able to attend this important meeting.

The new film collection is now available at the Headquarters. Lists have been sent to all member libraries. These films, which are loaned to the System through the Special Services Section of the New York State Library, may be borrowed through a member library for use by any community organization. They are not available to schools or individuals.

The Annual New York Library Association Conference will be held at the Laurels, Monticello, New York, October 11 through October 15. We hope that some of our libraries will be represented.
